Part A - REASON FOR APPEAL

Violation of the Prisoner Litigation Reform Act: I have sent multiple critical issues to the Northeast Regional director — every single issue has been denied by the director, stating that the form "was not legible and worded the same" because the pen didn't copy over to the back pages. I am locked in a cage and denied access to pens other than a special type of pen — I have no way to obtain a ballpoint pen. Additionally, the regional director claims he cannot accept any photocopies. Therefore, the regional director will not consider any issue in direct violation of federal law. I have made every good faith effort possible to resolve this issue — if you do not resolve it now, then prepare to defend this petty attempt at obstruction and intimidation in court.
